

ROASTED CORN SALAD

- 1 bag frozen roasted corn, defrosted
- 2 red bell peppers, diced
- 1 wedge pepper jack cheese-cut into small cubes
- ½-¾ of an 8-oz. bottle Balsamic Vinaigrette dressing

Mix everything together and enjoy!

I got this recipe from Trader Joe's and the point is that all the ingredients come from their store. I'm sure you could find frozen roasted corn elsewhere, or you could always roast a couple of extra ears of corn when you are grilling, then cut it off the cob. You could also brown frozen kernels in a skillet to achieve something similar (you'd be missing that smoky taste, but it would still caramelize it some). As for the wedge of Jack? They weren't selling wedges, but rather large rectangles! I cut about ¾ of it into small cubes, probably equaling about 1 cup of cubes. The spice in the cheese is a wonderful complement to this salad. On to the vinaigrette. . . . you certainly don't have to buy bottled vinaigrette! Make your own by using 3 parts oil to 1 part vinegar, a little Dijon mustard, garlic, salt and pepper.
