

Winger's Pie

We used to eat at a diner called Winger's and this was on their dessert menu. I didn't use their original name because I didn't want them to come after me! Besides, this is a simplistic attempt to recreate something yummy ... if you have the chance, you should really eat this pie at Winger's!

1 Chocolate Cookie Crust

Mint Chocolate Chip Ice Cream

Whipped Cream (1 ½ cups of heavy cream, whipped with 2 T. sugar) OR COOL WHIP

Caramel Sauce

Let the ice cream soften just a bit, then dip it into the cookie crust. Use as much as you want and if you want to PILE IT HIGH, then do it!! No one will complain!

Put it in the freezer until it's time to eat it.

Whip the whipping cream with the sugar and put it on top of the ice cream, or spoon the Cool Whip on. Or mix it up and use the cream in the squirt can!

Drizzle each slice with caramel sauce.
